

Mrs. Sandy Corrigan, M.Ed.
Grade 2, St. Angela Merici Parish School

---

Mrs. Sandra (Sandy) Corrigan's professional experience includes successful educational leadership as a classroom teacher in grades 2 and 3 (predominately grade 2) at St. Angela Merici School for 39 years. Mrs. Corrigan has a Master in Education from Mount St. Joseph in Education and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education (K-8) from Sacred Heart College. Her educational specialties include sacramental preparation for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist, as well as, a full second grade curriculum including Religion, Math, Reading, Language Arts (Spelling, English and Phonics), Handwriting, Social Studies and Science.

Mrs. Corrigan and her husband of 36 years, Terry, enjoy their standard seven year old poodle, Buddy. Although she has no children of her own, Mrs. Corrigan looks forward to the children in her class. She enjoys cooking and reading.

---

Our mission is to promote a safe environment where students achieve the highest standards of academic excellence and to live our Roman Catholic faith in service to others.