

Miss Erin Hegarty, B.S.Ed. Grade 7, St. Angela Merici Parish School

Miss Erin Hegarty is excited to begin her first year at St. Angela Merici School as the 7th grade language arts and theology teacher. She began her teaching career as the Title One tutor at Olmsted Falls Middle School.

Miss Hegarty completed her undergraduate degree in middle childhood education with concentrations in language arts and mathematics at Baldwin-Wallace College. While at B-W, Miss Hegarty was involved in the campus teaching organization and served as its president. She also held an executive board position in her sorority and worked as an ambassador for the Admission and Education departments.

Our mission is to promote a safe environment where students achieve the highest standards of academic excellence and to live our Roman Catholic faith in service to others.
