

Mrs. Eileen Augustin is entering her 24th year of teaching. With an elementary education degree (grades 1-8) from Bowling Green State University, Mrs. Augustin has spent her entire teaching career in Catholic education. Beginning at St. Bartholomew School, Mrs. Augustin began as a 6th grade teacher. While there she acted as assistant coach on the track team and an advisor for student council. After 3 years she moved to Our Lady of Mount Carmel West School. Her homeroom was 5th grade, however she taught math in grades 5-8 for several years. During her years at Mt. Carmel, Mrs. Augustin also taught 1st grade reading, 4th grade science, and acted as the assistant to the principal. It was during her years at Mt. Carmel that she became a Catholic and became certified to teach religion. In her 8 years at St. Angela Merici School Mrs. Augustin has become a mentor teacher and helped 2 teachers pass their Praxis III evaluation. She is the co-advisor for the peer mediators, serves as a Eucharistic Minister, and serves on the social committee. Her upbeat teaching style and high expectations have touched many children's lives.

Mrs. Augustin lives in Olmsted Falls with her husband of 18 years, Dan, and their 2 teenagers, Andy, 16 and Danielle, 13. They also have a cat named Cooper. She enjoys reading, gardening, walking, and having fun with her family.
