

Mrs. Patricia Horner is a second grade teacher at St. Angela Merici where she has taught for 13 years. Previously she has taught both 1st and 2nd grades in Dayton, Ohio and in Indianapolis, Indiana. Mrs. Horner received her B.S. from Wright State University in Dayton, OH and her M.S. in Elementary Education from Indiana University. She currently holds a Life License in Indiana and a Permanent Certificate in Ohio. Mrs. Horner also has a Master Catechist certificate and has prepared over 22 classes to receive the sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist. Mrs. Horner is the St. Angela's Representative on the Local Professional Development Committee where she assists the St. Angela Staff in their License Renewals. Recently, she was a member of the committee who revised the Science Curriculum for the Diocese of Cleveland.

Mrs. Horner has been married to her husband, Bob, for 32 years. They have two wonderful children. Their son Jonathan is a physicist for the U.S. Patent Office in Washington D.C. and their daughter Jennifer is a Human Factors Engineer and Graphic Designer also in Washington D.C. Mrs. Horner spends her free time walking, reading, bike riding, crafting and playing with their Yorkie "Noel".