

Miss Colleen Randazzo begins her third year at St. Angela Merici School as the Junior High Social Studies and eighth grade Theology teacher. Miss Randazzo received her undergraduate degree in history and education from John Carroll University. In addition to receiving a degree from John Carroll, she also participated in track-and-field and rugby. Her enthusiasm for extra-curricular activities shows in her involvement in St. Angela's Student Council, Classroom of Champions, and Ski Club.

Miss Randazzo enjoys playing and watching sports, especially her favorite professional sports team, the Cleveland Browns. In addition to her love of sports, Miss Randazzo also enjoys spending time with her parents, sister, three brothers, and friends.
